

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Reverend Daniel Pure has been a good personal friend and professional associate for fifteen years.

His work with Reiki and also spiritual issues has had a profound influence on patients whom I have referred to him over a period of many years.

Reverend Pure's understanding of Eastern and Western philosophy and religions has kept him open minded and nonjudgmental. Conversation with him is extraordinarily easy and comfortable for patients.

He is a natural counselor and therapist with an innate ability to facilitate dialogue with his understated presence.

Dan's integrity and honesty are beyond reproach.

I would highly recommend him to anyone who is seeking personal help and understanding. His work with Reiki has produced amazing results and as a Reiki Master, he is excellent in teaching others who would like to learn this healing method.
